

FALL FORUM 2010

ASSESSMENT: TENSIONS, OPPORTUNITIES AND OUTCOMES

Friday, November 5, 2010, at the College of the Holy Cross

Worcester, Massachusetts

8:30 AM to 3:00 PM

Keynote Speaker: Peter T. Ewell

Vice President of the National Center for Higher Education Management Systems (NCHEMS)

Dr. Ewell's work focuses on assessing institutional and higher education system effectiveness and the outcomes of college, and involves both research and direct consulting with institutions and state systems on collecting and using assessment information in planning, evaluation, and budgeting. He has consulted with over 375 colleges and universities and twenty four state systems of higher education on topics related to performance indicators and the assessment of student learning. He has also worked internationally in these fields, most recently in Hong Kong. Dr. Ewell has authored seven books and numerous articles on the topic of improving undergraduate instruction through the assessment of student outcomes.

The Forum sessions represent an array of institutions from across New England and will focus on key issues in higher education assessment, including topics on:

- General Education and General Outcomes Assessment
- Discipline and Program-Based Assessment
- Best Practices in Assessment Implementation

Please tell your colleagues about this exciting opportunity!
